

The Mastery of Artist
Florian K. Lawton
His Amish Legacy with Nature

Please join us...on June 7, 2013 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m.
At West Woods in Russell Township. An exhibition and sale of Paintings and Drawings by celebrated NorthEast Ohio artist Florian K. Lawton will open to the public.

An artist and historian, Lawton became interested in the Amish in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana over fifty years ago. Lawton continued to paint and record the Amish and their Pioneer Way of Life throughout his career.
Lawton once said, "They have been but one facet of my paintings and of those; the most gratifying and rewarding."

Enjoy fine examples of his art from public and private collections throughout the United States. Hors d'oeuvres and refreshments from Sara's in Gates Mills.
Ken Lawton, Managing Partner of the Florian K. Lawton Foundation will open the evening's activities. Proceeds from sales will benefit Hiram College, the Amish Heritage Center, the Malachi House and the Geauga Park District.
